

Footy Again the Waal

Trad
Arr: Graham Stacy

2

Fra Ben - ton Bank te Ben - ton Toon There's not a pit-man's raa And when ye get te the
And when ye get te the
And when ye get te the
And when ye get te the

6

Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal Then it's high foo - ty and low foo - ty And foo - ty a - gain the
Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal Then it's high foo - ty and low foo - ty And foo - ty a - gain the
Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal Then it's high foo - ty and low foo - ty And foo - ty a - gain the Moor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal Then it's high foo - ty and low foo - ty And foo - ty a - gain the

12

waal And when ye get - te the Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal
waal And when ye get te the Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal
waal And when ye get te the Moo - oor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal waal And when ye get te the Moor Yate Play foo - ty a - gain the waal

Footy Again the Waal

Fra Benton Bank te Benton Toon
There's not a pitman's raa
So when ye get te the Moor Yate
Play footy again the waal

*Then it's high footy and low footy
And footy again the waal
So when ye get te the Moor Yate
Play footy again the waal*

The wife went doon te the Moor Lonnen
And let her basket faal
For when she got te the Moor Yate Played footy again the waal

The Holystone's a holy place
The trees are thick and laa
But now they are at the Moor Yate Playing footy again the waal

Oh Wappin Square's a bonny place
The houses are but smaal
But in them yet there's room enough
For footy again the waal

The stoby Road's a stoby place
And some of the stob's are laa
But still there's some that's high enough
For footy again the waal

The lady did not like the hoose
For the air it was raw
It was sweeter far at the Moor Yate
For footy again the waal

Young Cuddy is a bonny lad
And Robin's taal and sma
But if ye come te wor toon-end
They'll footy again the waal